Class Revised: April 18, 1993

Editorial Review: 3/15/03

The Senior Word Processing Typist works under the general supervision of the Executive Director; the position's immediate supervisor is the Chief Financial Officer.

The work of the Senior Word Processing Typist includes routine office work, word processing for correspondence and reports, filing and maintaining records on paper and in electronic formats and databases. The RIHPHC is currently working to update and organize a large amount of data about historic properties into computer databases and a geographical information system. This is a critical work task, and the Senior Word Processing Typist will be assigned to assist this project by organizing information and data entry, in addition to other tasks. Knowledge/experience using Access computer databases and geographic information system technology is desirable.
